

A rare chance to join a GRM session firsthand.

The Geopolitics of the Turbulent Middle East

Details

Venue / IMADEGAWA campus

Language / English Admission / Free

Open to / All Doshisha University Students

OCT. 8 2025
WED

Period 4

14:55–16:25

Lecture

Period 5

16:40–18:10

Open Dialogue with Participants

▶ Lecturer

Ambassador
Tsukasa UEMURA

Special Envoy for the Middle East Peace

After joining Japan's Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1981, Special Envoy Uemura has played a leading role in areas such as Middle Eastern affairs and international counter-terrorism.

He has been deeply involved in Japan's efforts to support the reconstruction of Afghanistan and Iraq, as well as in shaping Official Development Assistance (ODA) policy, contributing to Japan's diplomacy at the forefront of international cooperation. He held prominent positions including the DG of the Consular Affairs Bureau and the DG of the Middle Eastern Affairs Bureau at the MOFA, and served as Ambassador in Saudi Arabia. He retired from the Foreign Service in 2021, and assumed the present post in the same year.

Details(The classroom location etc.) will be announced via email at a later date.

Application

DeadLine

OCT. 1
11:59PM

▶ Facilitator
professor Masanori NAITO

Global Resource Management

Contact
ji-grmld@mail.doshisha.ac.jp

Check out our website!

